

The present Daniel Ward Chapel which was begun in 1951 and dedicated July 2, 1956 by Elder Mark E. Petersen of the Council of the Twelve.

The organization took place on Nov. 12, 1898, and Charles John Wahlquist was sustained as the first Bishop. He presided over the ward until May of 1903 when the ward was discontinued.

In Daniel, the first settlers made their homes in 1874 and were affiliated with the Center Creek Ward until 1885 when Joseph Jacob was sustained as presiding elder in the Daniel Branch. He was succeeded in 1888 by John P. Jordan who served until Nov. 29, 1898 when the Daniel Ward was formed. First Bishop was Patrick Henry McGuire.

The two wards continued their meetings, socials and other activities as separate units until May 10, 1903 when the members were called together to approve a merger of the two ecclesiastical units.
